

De Timed Tournament of Archers

Archers of the Soar Valley are called upon the field on the day of our Lord

Tuesday 11 August

and thereupon challenged to probe their mettle
and compete against their peers in timed battle.

English Longbowmen are boasted to fire
a dozen arrows within a minute.

Archers are challenged to place 6 shafts unto the target with all mustered haste.

Come forth all archers and compete for the Grand Prize of a leather purse containing therein the sum of Ten Guineas
Our celebrated cook ~ Little John shall be called forth to provide Archers & Onlooking serfs with Hot Grilled Sustenance & refreshing drafts

Archers ~ £5 Squires ~ £3
Onlooking Plebians ~ £4/£2

In the spirit of this historic challenge ~ Archers arriving upon the field in costume (either historically accurate or tongue-in-cheek) shall receive a bonus of between one and six seconds at the discretion of the judges.
